

Chicago Architects Genealogy Project (CAGP) is an ongoing and evolving research project illustrating the relationships among architects, their mentors and their proteges within the Chicago area. The goal is to create a dynamic online diagram showing these relationships that can be utilized by architects, historians and students. The CAGP committee includes architects, architectural historians, preservationists, and archivists who are creating an online genealogy of Chicago architects from the 19th through the 21st centuries. The current research is building upon and updating the Chicago architects' genealogy published in 1993 in the Art Institute of Chicago's exhibition catalog Chicago Architecture and Design, 1923-1993: Reconfiguration of an American Metropolis.

We wish to include Chicago-area architects and designers who meet any of the following criteria:

- (1) received honors or awards,
- (2) have been published,
- (3) are distinguished teachers,
- (4) Fellows, AIA

Please fill out as much information as possible so that we can ensure that our online database is accurate.
