Society of Architectural Historians
Invitation for Nominations
2022 Alice Davis Hitchcock Book Award

Presented by the Society of Architectural Historians for distinguished scholarship by a North American author in the history of architecture.

Purpose
The Alice Davis Hitchcock Book Award was established in 1949 to recognize annually the most distinguished work of scholarship in the history of architecture published by a North American scholar.

Criteria for Submission
A "North American scholar" is defined as someone born in Canada, the United States, or Mexico, or someone who published the book while living or holding a position in one of these countries. For the purposes of this award, "architectural history" is interpreted broadly.

Books in English with a printed copyright date of 2019 or 2020 are eligible. Entries for consideration must be scholarly volumes that (1) have been peer reviewed; (2) have rigorously documented sources; and (3) include scholarly apparatus such as notes and bibliography. Entries may be submitted only by the publisher or publisher’s distributor. Self-published books are not eligible. Journals are not eligible.

Subsequent editions of a book are eligible only if the original core material has been substantially edited or revised. A new preface or introduction with no changes to the original text is not eligible.

Books submitted for this award may not be submitted in the same year for the Elisabeth Blair MacDougall Award, the Antoinette Forrester Downing Award, the Exhibition Catalogue Award or the Spiro Kostof Award. Books that have received one of those awards in a previous year may not be submitted for the Alice Davis Hitchcock Award.

The Award
The award consists of a certificate and citation that will be presented at the Society's 75th Annual International Conference in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, April 27-May 1, 2022. The award will be announced in the Journal of the Society of Architectural Historians and the SAH Newsletter. The winning publication will become part of the Society's permanent archive, displayed in the library of the Charnley-Persky House in Chicago, Illinois.
The Committee

The Committee is appointed by the president of the Society of Architectural Historians. One copy of the nominated publication, along with the completed nomination form below, should be sent to each committee member postmarked by July 31, 2021.

In light of COVID-19 and some publishers potentially not being able to send hard copies of a book, email addresses for each committee member are provided. While hard copies of publications are preferred (unless otherwise noted) please send electronically if it is more feasible.
