Reader's Advisory

The Getty Museum announces the availability of two titles in a new series being developed that is geared specifically to addressing discoverability and longevity issues inherent in similar digital publications. These collection catalogues are open access. While the primary editions of each are online, they are also both available as free downloads in PDF, EPUB and MOBI/Kindle formats; as well as in paperbacks, which lack zooming images and interactive maps.

Downloads are available directly from the catalogue sites, paperbacks can be purchased through the usual vendors, and links to the LOC and WorldCat records are provided below.

The titles are:

Ancient Terracottas from South Italy and Sicily in the J. Paul Getty Museum by Maria Lucia Ferruzza
