SAH NOTICES

1993 Annual Meeting - Charleston, South Carolina (April 14-18), Franklin Faks, University of Charleston. The general chair of the meeting, Kenneth Sev- enus, University of Southern Florida, is local chairperson. Headquarters for the meeting will be the Mills House Hotel.

A list of all SAH sessions appeared in the April 1992 Newsletter, with the names and addresses of all of the chairs. Please call them, REMINDER - Deadline for absents of papers for the Charleston meeting is July 1, 1992.

1992 Domestic Tour - Connecticut River Valley (August 22-29). The leader of this tour will be Kenneth Hartefich of Historic Deerfield. Attendance has been sent to the membership and members are urged to reserve space for this tour which will be held August 23. Deadline for application for this trip is August 15. Deadline for submission of material: the 15th of the preceding even month.

President, Elizabeth Blair MacDougall Route 1, Box 144 Woodstock, VT 05091
Editor: Marjorie Pearson Landmarks Preservation Commission 225 Broadway New York, NY 10007 FAX 212/964-2409
Assistant Editor: Charles Savage Landmarks Preservation Commission 225 Broadway, New York, NY 10007
Publications Editor: Judith Holliday Fine Arts Library, Shelby Dene, Cornell University Ithaca, NY 14853

EOE. All applicants must submit Application for Federal Employment (SF-171, signed dated) and a current performance App. Apply to: DASH Personnel Operations (1400) 17470, SIS69 Fishers Lane, Rockville MD 20857.

LANDSCAPE HISTORICSTY. Full time position not to exceed four years. Primary responsibilities include conducting a National Historic Landmark Study of park landscapes assigned for visitor use, interpretation, and administration purposes under the management of the National Park Service between 1989 and 1992. Qualifications: B.A. in history. American studies, art, architecture, or related field; course work in American landscape history; and knowledge of field techniques for evaluating cultural landscapes. In addition, applicants must have three years of professional experience in related field or three years of experience as professional historian. Starting salary $38,800. For details contact Robert P. Wein, National Park Service, 422 P, Box 37127, Washington, D. C. 20013-7127, (202) 345-8133.

Members are invited to submit recommendations for nominations for the Board of Directors. Please send names and addresses to the Executive Director, 1232 Pine Street, Philadelphia, PA 19107-3540 by end of year.

REPORT OF THE 1992 SAH ANNUAL MEETING

The forty-fifth Annual Meeting of the Society of Architectural Historians was held at the Doubletree Hotel in Albu- querque, New Mexico, from April 1st through 5th. There were 398 registrants, and under the leadership of Christopher Mead and his local committee, the meeting was a very successful one.

A total of 17 sessions, including six open sessions were held over the course of three days, and a one-day conference on historic preservation, sponsored by the Preservation Committee of the SAH, the Albuquerque Conservation Society, and the Society for Commercial Archaeology, was held on the opening day of the meeling. In addition there was a Wednesday evening reception with talks by Christo- pher Mead on New Mexico's living architectural landscape and by Bart Prince on his current architectural projects.

Another reception, a New Mexican Fiesta, was held at the Old Airport Termi- nal on the grounds of the current airport. Seven tours were given on Saturday and Sunday, which included Albuquerque, the Rio Grande Valley, Santa Fe, and historic pueblo in the area. The SAH wishes to express its deep appreciation to Christopher Mead and his Local Committee for their outstanding efforts in organizing this very successful meeting. Members of the Local Commit- tee were Jerry Brody, Mary Davis, Robin Farwell, Gavin, Robert Peters, Bart Prince, and Christopher Wilson.

A special memorial tribute to Spiro Kostof was held on Friday evening fol- lowed by the 1992 SAH Annual Business Meeting, and hereinafter is the report of that meeting:

Report of the President

Perry B. McCullough welcomed everyone, and expressed special thanks to Christopher Mead, his wife Michele Poth, and the Local Committee, all of the local volunteers, and the SAH staff for their hard work in organizing the meet- ing. President MacDougall called to the attention of those present the written reports from the officers, committee chairs, and the Editor of the Buildings of the United States. Questions about these reports or requests for duplicate copies should be addressed to the office in Philadelphia. MacDougall then an- nounced the establishment of the Kostof Book Award in memory of Spiro Kostof, who was President of the Society from 1974 to 1976.

Samuel S. Kress Publication Fellowship

Adolf Placzek, on behalf of the Direc- tors of the Architectural History Founda- tion, announced this year's recipient of the Kress Publication Fellowship. The $10,000 award, which is administered by the Architectural History Foundation, is given to enable the recipient to prepare a dissertation for book publication. This year's award was presented to Meredith Gill.

Vincent Scully Research Grant

Adolf Placzek then announced that Katherine Sokolinson had been chosen as the recipient of this year's Vincent Scully Research Grant.

Bylaws Changes

President MacDougall read the text of the proposed amendments to the Bylaws as recommended by the Board of Direc- tors at its meeting of October 19, 1991, and as printed in the Annual Meeting Program. The first amendment proposed a change of name and charge for what will be the Finance and Development Committee, which will advise the board on investments and develop new fund raising programs. The second Bylaws amendment proposed enlarging the Executive Committee to include the Editor-in-Chief. All amendments were seconded by the editor of the Journal and two members of the Board. of Directors. Discussion from the floor of the latter proposed amendment followed. However, because both amendments were made, seconded, and passed by voice vote.

Fellowships and Grants

The National Endowment for the Humanities Reference Materials program supports projects that improve access to information and resources. Support is available for the creation of dictionaries, historical or linguistic atlases, encyclopedias, concordances, reference grammars, data bases, atlas bases, and other projects that will provide essential scholarly tools for the advancement of research or for general reference purposes. Grants may also support projects that will assist scholars and researchers to locate information about reference materials and in the interpretation of specific materials for their work. Eligibility for support are such projects as bibliographies, catalogs of reference works, and other descriptive cata-

DEATHS

Fellowships and Grants

The National Endowment for the Humanities Reference Materials program supports projects that improve access to information and resources. Support is available for the creation of dictionaries, historical or linguistic atlases, encyclopedias, concordances, reference grammars, data bases, atlas bases, and other projects that will provide essential scholarly tools for the advancement of research or for general reference purposes. Grants may also support projects that will assist scholars and researchers to locate information about reference materials and in the interpretation of specific materials for their work. Eligibility for support are such projects as bibliographies, catalogs of reference works, and other descriptive cata-

DEATHS

Fellowships and Grants

The National Endowment for the Humanities Reference Materials program supports projects that improve access to information and resources. Support is available for the creation of dictionaries, historical or linguistic atlases, encyclopedias, concordances, reference grammars, data bases, atlas bases, and other projects that will provide essential scholarly tools for the advancement of research or for general reference purposes. Grants may also support projects that will assist scholars and researchers to locate information about reference materials and in the interpretation of specific materials for their work. Eligibility for support are such projects as bibliographies, catalogs of reference works, and other descriptive cata-

CALL FOR PAPERS

The National Council on Public History invites submissions for complete sessions, individual papers, or panels. (Harry Schall, Department of History, West Chester University of Pennsylvania, 321 N. Washington Avenue, West Chester, Pennsylvania 19383.) For more information, contact Dr. Jeffrey J. H. van Tilburg, 321 N. Washington Avenue, West Chester, Pennsylvania 19383, (610) 438-4454.

The Southern American Studies Conference: Regional Themes of the 1990s is being held at the University of Mississippi, Oxford, Mississippi, October 25-27, 1990. Graduate students and faculty are invited to make papers for and participate in the meeting. All proposals are due by July 1, 1990. Additional information is available from Professor J. D. B. Jones, Department of History, Mississippi State University, Starkville, Mississippi 39759.

Applications are invited for a post-doctoral fellowship in the history of science and technology at the Science History Institute in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, USA, to begin in September 1990. The successful applicant will join the Institute's research program and will be involved in the research of the Institute's projects, contribute to the development of new projects, and participate in the Institute's publications.

The deadline for applications is June 15, 1990. Further information can be obtained from the Director, Science History Institute, 305 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania 19106, USA. Tel: 215 567-0800.

The deadline for the submission of papers is January 31, 1990. Further information can be obtained from the National Council on Public History, 1300 Connecticut Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20036.
In honor of the 125th anniversary of Frank Lloyd Wright's birth, the Frank Lloyd Wright Preservation Society will open Wright's Wisconsin home, Taliesin, for interior house tours. Built in 1911 on the shores of a bit of overlooking the Wisconsin River, the building was Wright's home workshop, laboratory, and retreat for nearly 50 years. The tour will also include Hillside Home School, designed by Wright and built in 1902 for June and Nellloyd Jones. Tours will be offered twice a day Thursday through Sunday from June 11 through September 26 at $35 per adult, reservations are required: Information: (608) 588-2521.

The University of Miami School of Architecture has published the first issue of its new journal on architecture and urban design, The New City. Produced through the school's Graduate Program in Suburban and Town Planning, the journal will be distributed by Princeton Architectural Press. The first issue, entitled "Foundations," contains articles on John Nolen and the new town he designed for Florida in the 1920s, the work of French landscape architect Jean-Claude Forester, creator of the master plans for park systems in Buenos Aires and Havana; and the work of Austrian architect Karl Brunner in Bogota and Santiago. The next issue will focus on Los Angeles and Southern California.

Society of Architectural Historians, 232 Pine Street Philadelphia, PA 19107-5944

Non-Profit Org. U.S. Postage PAID Kansas City, Mo. Permit No. 4085

JUNE 1992 VOL. XXXVII NO. 3

The Newsletter is published every month by the Society of Architectural Historians (215/735-0224, FAX 215/735-2590). Deadline for submission of material: the 15th of the preceding even month.

President: Elisabeth Blair MacDougall Route 1 Box 144 Woodstock, VT 05091
Editor: Marjorie Pearson Landmarks Preservation Commission 525 Broadway New York, NY 10007 FAX 212/694-2409
Publications: Judith Holiday Fine Arts Library, Sidney Dome, Cornell University Ithaca, NY 14853

Perspectives: Films/Video of Wimette, Illinois, has announced the release of two video series: Chicago, a five-part documentary film series exploring the city's architecture, development, and urban design; Part I, "Chicago's Riverfront: Where the Present Meets the Past," and Part II, "The Loop: Where the Skyscraper and History Collide," were released in 1991. The remaining three parts will be available in 1992. Information: Perspectives: Films/Video, P.O. Box 365, Wimette, Illinois 60091, (800) 686-8850.

The Urban History Association, founded in 1989, is eager to broaden its membership base and is offering free membership for 1992 to graduate students in the humanities, social sciences, architecture, public history, historic preservation, and related fields whose research topics or professional training involve urban history. For further information write: Professor Leonard Wallock, Department of History, Hunter College/ CUNY, 695 Park Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10021.

CONFERENCE

The Fourth Historic Bridge Conference will be held August 27-29, 1992, at the University of Florida. The conference is sponsored by the Civil Engineering Department of the University of Florida and the Florida Historic Preservation Office. The conference meeting will bring together the often divergent viewpoints of highway engineers and historic preservationists. Scheduled to coincide with the regular meeting of the Columbus Quinquennial, this conference has an international program. Sessions have been planned to allow comparison of international perspectives and approaches to historic bridge study and care. For more information contact: International Historic Bridge Conference, 2070 Nell Avenue, 470 Higginbotham, Columbus, Ohio 43210-1293.

SAH PLACEMENT SERVICE BULLETIN

Deadline for submission of material is the Placement Service Bulletin is the 15th of the preceding even-numbered month. Contact the SAH office in Philadelphia for full information about the categories and conditions for inclusion in the listings.

PROFESSIONAL

New York, New York 10007. New York City Planning Commission (Landmark Preservation Commission) (LPC) LANDMARKS PRESERVATIONIST (Research Division). Subject to budget approval. Staff position with responsibility for undertaking architectural and historical research in architectural and historical preservation. The applicant should have a strong background in architectural history, prepared reports describing potential landmarks and sites of historic significance. The position requires a Master of Arts degree in architectural history or architectural history, or history and the visual arts. Three years of full-time paid experience in the field; or a bachelor's degree in one of the fields and at least two years of full-time paid experience in the field. Salary $35,000. Apply with cover letter, resume, writing samples, and names and addresses of three references to: Marjorie Pearson, Director of Research, Landmarks Preservation Commission, 525 Broadway - 23rd Floor, New York, N.Y. 10007.

SAH PLACEMENT SERVICE BULLETIN

1993 Annual Meeting - Charleston South Carolina (April 14-18). Franklin Toker, University of Pittsburgh, is general chairman and is organizing a series of events for the 1993 Annual Meeting. Contact the SAH office in Philadelphia for full information about the categories and conditions for inclusion in the listings.

PROFESSIONAL

New York, New York 10007. New York City Planning Commission (Landmark Preservation Commission) (LPC) LANDMARKS PRESERVATIONIST (Research Division). Subject to budget approval. Staff position with responsibility for undertaking architectural and historical research in architectural and historical preservation. The applicant should have a strong background in architectural history, prepared reports describing potential landmarks and sites of historic significance. The position requires a Master of Arts degree in architectural history or architectural history, or history and the visual arts. Three years of full-time paid experience in the field; or a bachelor's degree in one of the fields and at least two years of full-time paid experience in the field. Salary $35,000. Apply with cover letter, resume, writing samples, and names and addresses of three references to: Marjorie Pearson, Director of Research, Landmarks Preservation Commission, 525 Broadway - 23rd Floor, New York, N.Y. 10007.

The Rosarn Barry Annual Meeting Fellowship. Awarded each year by the SAH to enable a student engaged in advanced graduate study to attend the annual meeting of the Society. For the recipient, the Society will waive all fees associated with the meeting itself, and, in addition, will provide reimbursement for travel, lodging and meals directly related to the meeting, a total of $500.00. To be eligible, applicant must have a member in his firm or in his department, or the meeting, be currently engaged in advanced graduate study (normally beyond the master's level) that involves some aspect of the history of architecture, and one of the fields closely allied to it, and appropriate background by using the application form that will be sent to each SAH member by the Executive Director, Society of Architectural Historians, 1232 Pine Street, Philadelphia, PA 19107-5944. Deadline for receipt of completed applications is December 15, 1992.

The Keepers Preservation Education Fund Fellowship. Through a grant to SAH and the Keepers Preservation Education Fund, $500.00 will be offered to a historic preservation graduate student for reimbursement of expenses directly related to attendance at the 1993 Annual Meeting. The application procedure and deadline are the same as for the Rosarn Barry Annual Meeting Fellowship, except that the requirements of one-year membership in SAH and graduate study beyond the master's level do not apply.

In addition to these awards which fund attendance at the SAH Annual Meeting, the SAH offers the following publication and research awards. SAH members who are authors of eligible publications are urged to inform their publishers of the awards.

Alice Davis Hitchcock Book Award. This award was established in 1949 to recognize annually the most outstanding contribution to the field of architectural history. The award is given to an individual whose book best represents the highest standards of scholarship in architectural history. The book may be in English or any other language.

Founders' Book Award. This award is given to the best book published in the previous year in the history of architecture. The book may be in English or any other language.

The E. B. DuBois Fellowship. This fellowship is in honor of the late Emanuel B. DuBois, an active member of the SAH. The fellowship is given to a student in architecture who shows a special interest in working on a topic relating to the history of African-American architecture. The fellowship is intended to support the research of junior scholars, including graduate students, but senior scholars may also apply. The Edith du Monceau Fellowship will be selected by an SAH committee, and announced at the 1993 annual meeting in Charleston, South Carolina. Application forms will be distributed to all members of SAH by the end of March, 1992. The application deadline is March 31, 1992.

Sally Kress Tompkins Fellowship. This joint fellowship of the SAH and the Historic American Buildings Survey (HABS) carries a stipend of $7,000 which will permit an architectural historian to work as a team with the staff of the Historic American Buildings Survey during the summer of 1993. For more information see the call for papers. The application deadline is March 31, 1992.

Society of Architectural Historians, 1232 Pine Street, Philadelphia, PA 19107.

Antoinette Forrester Downing Award (for published architectural survey). The society will accept applications for an exemplar architectural or historic resources survey published during the previous three years. Application forms and guidelines for submission will be available later in the year. Single authorship is preferred for this award, but co-authored works will be considered. The winners of this award are selected by the Society's awards committee. The Society encourages anyone who is publishing to contact the SAH office for information about submission.

E. B. DuBois Fellowship. This fellowship is in honor of the late Emanuel B. DuBois, an active member of the SAH. The fellowship is given to a student in architecture who shows a special interest in working on a topic relating to the history of African-American architecture. The fellowship is intended to support the research of junior scholars, including graduate students, but senior scholars may also apply. The Edith du Monceau Fellowship will be selected by an SAH committee, and announced at the 1993 annual meeting in Charleston, South Carolina. Application forms will be distributed to all members of SAH by the end of March, 1992. The application deadline is March 31, 1992.

Sally Kress Tompkins Fellowship. This joint fellowship of the SAH and the Historic American Buildings Survey (HABS) carries a stipend of $7,000 which will permit an architectural historian to work as a team with the staff of the Historic American Buildings Survey during the summer of 1993. For more information see the call for papers. The application deadline is March 31, 1992.

Society of Architectural Historians, 1232 Pine Street, Philadelphia, PA 19107.

Antoinette Forrester Downing Award (for published architectural survey). The society will accept applications for an exemplar architectural or historic resources survey published during the previous three years. Application forms and guidelines for submission will be available later in the year. Single authorship is preferred for this award, but co-authored works will be considered. The winners of this award are selected by the Society's awards committee. The Society encourages anyone who is publishing to contact the SAH office for information about submission.

E. B. DuBois Fellowship. This fellowship is in honor of the late Emanuel B. DuBois, an active member of the SAH. The fellowship is given to a student in architecture who shows a special interest in working on a topic relating to the history of African-American architecture. The fellowship is intended to support the research of junior scholars, including graduate students, but senior scholars may also apply. The Edith du Monceau Fellowship will be selected by an SAH committee, and announced at the 1993 annual meeting in Charleston, South Carolina. Application forms will be distributed to all members of SAH by the end of March, 1992. The application deadline is March 31, 1992.

Sally Kress Tompkins Fellowship. This joint fellowship of the SAH and the Historic American Buildings Survey (HABS) carries a stipend of $7,000 which will permit an architectural historian to work as a team with the staff of the Historic American Buildings Survey during the summer of 1993. For more information see the call for papers. The application deadline is March 31, 1992.