

00:47:35 Ann Agee: Is there a list of speakers and topics available before presentations---I'm wondering how much, if any, of the topics are relevant to my interest, which is the ancient Mediterranean?

00:50:58 Kivanc Kilinc: Here are the tentative titles:

00:51:02 Kivanc Kilinc: "Public Spaces as Networks of Exchange in the Medieval Mediterranean"

"Rethinking the Mediterranean from the Bidonvilles of Algiers"

"Mediterranean Blues, Re-Drawing the Spaces of Islamic Architecture"

"Teaching and Research on Post-Conflict Recovery and Displacement"

01:19:05 Helena Dean: Please ask questions at any time using the Q&A feature. Thank you.

01:31:36 Charles Kaminski: Thank you for this presentation. Unfortunately I have to leave early and will look forward to seeing the recorded version. Thank you.

01:41:36 Meral Ekincioglu: Thanks for this diverse and inclusive scholarly perspective on the multicultural Mediterranean architecture and its strong global connectivities throughout history. Looking forward to such online events by SAH on diverse Mediterranean architecture history and historiography! (I hope you are going to share the record of this panel for research and teaching communities in the field; thanks in advance!). Meral Ekincioglu, Ph.D.

01:44:25 Helena Dean: Video of today's program will be available online at <https://www.sah.org/conferences-and-programs/sah-connects/2022/shared-histories-of-architectural-history-and-practice-across-the-mediterranean> and <https://vimeo.com/showcase/sah> and emailed to registrants a few days after the event.

01:44:43 Meral Ekincioglu: Wonderful! Thanks, Helena!

01:52:52 Saygin Salgirli: Could you please type your question in the Q&A

01:58:18 Howayda Al-Harithy: I am sorry I can't hear well and will leave at 8:30 for another commitment

01:58:30 Howayda Al-Harithy: Thank you all and a pleasure to see you

02:00:22 Zuhail Ulusoy: Thanks for this wonderful session. Special hello to Kivanç and Saygın; has been a very long time.

02:06:00 Gerardo Brown-Manrique: Thank you for four fine presentations!

02:06:07 Helena Dean: Thank you, all!

02:06:14 Jacqueline Taylor: Great presentations - much food for thought!

02:06:19 Burak Erdim: Thank you!
